July 13, 2009

Sir:

The subject patent application was filed on April 15, 2004, and the assignee was indicated as a small entity; the small entity filing fee of $385.00 was paid. The subject patent application was allowed on October 13, 2005; and the small entity issue fee/publication fee of $1,000 was paid on January 6, 2006. The application issued on March 21, 2006, as U.S. Patent No. 7,015,677. Applicant has since realized that assignee, Denyo Co., Ltd., is not a small entity, and that this small entity designation was therefore made in error. This error was made without deceptive intent.

Applicant therefore requests that the status of the assignee be changed to indicate the assignee as a large entity. The additional fees are enclosed herewith in
